

I am opposed to this petition, as it would unfairly violate my expectation of privacy derived from the no-call list. If I wished to have unsolicited telephone calls from these businesses, I would merely write to each to inform them of my permission. My business relationship with any of these is one that is specifically limited. Therefore I am opposed to such an invasion of my privacy.